CHRISTMAS AND RED DAY - REPORT

"Christmas is the spirit of giving without a thought of getting."

Christmas is celebrated on 25th of December. It marks the birthday of Lord Jesus Christ the founder of Christianity, who, according to the Christian religion, is the son of God. The naming is a joining of "Christ" and "mass" which means the holy mass (supper, celebration or festival) of Christ. It is celebrated with great enthusiasm and joy in the whole world. The festival is not only celebrated by Christians but also by the people of all religions. The festival of Christmas is most awaited by children.

Colors are indeed the smile of nature....The deep hue symbolizes the blood of Jesus Christ, the person whose birthday the holiday celebrates. It is also associated with Santa Claus and his distinctive outfit. In general, red is often used to represent love, courage and romance.
